

STRATHCLYDE POSTGRADUATE LAW CONFERENCE

STRATHCLYDE 5TH ANNUAL POSTGRADUATE
LAW CONFERENCE

REIMAGINING JUSTICE AND ETHNOGRAPHY

29TH AND 30TH APRIL 2021

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, APRIL 29-30

Virtual conference

REGISTRATION FEE WILL REVERT TO THE SCOTTISH REFUGEE COUNCIL (SRC)

PROGRAMME

DAY 1

Panel 1 - Cultural Studies

Thursday, April 29

Chair: Dr Jay Gormley and Linda Mensah, University Of Strathclyde

09:00-09:10	Opening remarks
09:10-09:50	Dr Saskia Vermeylen, University of Strathclyde 'The importance of storytelling in decolonial ethnographic research'
09:50-10:20	Alice Lemkes, University of Leeds 'Supporting young adults facing 'severe multiple disadvantage''
10:20-10:50	Fatima Dhanani, University of London 'Negotiating the construct of legal pluralism in Muslim communities in Lebanon'
10:50-11:05	Break
11:05-11:35	Alvin Hoi-Chun Hung, University of Oxford 'Intercultural conflicts in foreign-invested factories: the methodological and cultural challenges in conducting ethnographic fieldwork in Myanmar'
11:35-12:05	David Tilt, Central European University (CEU) 'Examining intellectual property and the exploitation of indigenous communities: an ex-post emphasis on distributional equality'

PROGRAMME

- 12:05-12:35 Kate Mackenzie, University of St Andrews
'Inter-woven discourses – history, culture and imagination in the construction of international children's rights law'
- 12:40-13:40 Lunch break

Panel 2 - Gender Studies

Thursday, April 29

Chair: Meryem Horasan, University of Strathclyde

- 13:45-14:25 Corinne Knowles, Rhodes University
'African feminism's contribution to sustainable futures'
- 14:25-14:55 Linda Mensah, University of Strathclyde
'Rejecting the silences of our mothers: theorising inter-generational African feminist resistances through storytelling'
- 14:55-15:25 Sagnik Dutta, University of Cambridge
'Decolonising legal pluralism: women's claims and family law in shariat courts in Mumbai'
- 15:25-15:55 Caoimhe Ring, University of Oxford
'Queer theory bites back: copyright's 'negative space' and fraught ethnographies of queerness'
- 15:55-16:00 Final remarks

PROGRAMME

DAY 2

Panel 3 - Emotions

Friday, April 30

Chair: Tania Nascimento, University of Strathclyde

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 09:15-09:55 | Professor Meredith Rossner, Australian National University
'Researching emotions in criminal justice: reflections on methodologies' |
| 09:55-10:25 | Qendresa Shaqiri, Lumière University Lyon 2
'Emotion pedagogies as an emerging global phenomenon: the case of Scuola Clttà Pestalozzi' |
| 10:25-11:05 | Dr Lisa Flower, Lund University
'Loyalty Work: An Ethnographic Study of Defence Lawyers' Emotions in Swedish Courtrooms' |
| 11:05-11:20 | Break |

Panel 4 - Transitional Justice

Friday, April 30

Chair: Ben Cramer & Tania Nascimento, University of Strathclyde

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 11:20-12:00 | Dr Gearoid Millar, University of Aberdeen
The long-term legacies of transitional justice: understanding the paradox of peace in Sierra Leone' |
|-------------|--|

PROGRAMME

12:00-12:30	Elena Patrizi, University of Geneva 'Past violations of children's rights in Switzerland and in England: the role of transitional justice'
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:35-15:05	Eliya Halim, University of Leeds 'Financial inclusion and the challenge of customer due diligence in Malaysia'
15:05-15:45	Professor Tine Destrooper, Ghent University 'Stirring the justice imagination: countering the invisibilization and erasure of victims in transitional justice'
15:45-16:10	Conor Hill, University of Strathclyde 'Law, Space, Subject, Object: locating transitional justice'
16:10-16:15	Final remarks