

JAMES
MADISON
CHARITABLE TRUST

FOR THE STUDY OF FEDERAL SYSTEMS

EU FUTURES
A Research Network connecting interdisciplinary approaches to EU law, policy and politics
(2022-2025)

Programme

Understanding legal integration/disintegration: in search of new perspectives

EU Futures Research Network Launch Workshop

4 November 2022

Moot Court Room

The City Law School, Goswell Road, EC1V 7HD

City, University of London

Scientific Organisers:

Elaine Fahey, The City Law School, City, University of London

Fabien Terpan, Sciences Po Grenoble UGA, CESICE

Rebecca Zahn, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow

8h45 Welcome (Elaine Fahey, Fabien Terpan, Rebecca Zahn)

9h – 9h45 Keynote

Mikael Rask Madsen (University of Copenhagen): Researching the European Court of Justice. Methodological Shifts and Law's Embeddedness

10h – 11h30 Interdisciplinary research on EU law

Paul Copeland (Queen Mary University of London): Beyond the scope of law: Reflections on interdisciplinary research and the challenges of making it happen

Diamond Ashiagbor (University of Kent): Toward an economic sociology of EU law

Hugo Canihac (Université Saint Louis Bruxelles): Historical sociologies and European legal integration: towards an interdisciplinary research agenda

Adrienne Yong (City, University of London): Critical socio-legal theories in EU citizenship: explicating the gendered elements of free movement

Amanda Perry-Kessaris (University of Kent): How might designerly ways prompt and facilitate interdisciplinary understandings of EU legal (dis)integration?

11h30 – 11h45 Coffee break

11h45 – 13h15 Research Methods and EU law

Giulia Gentile (LSE) and Luigi Lonardo (University College Cork): Interdisciplinary Research Methods in EU Law: Challenges and Opportunities

Jan Zglinski (LSE): The end of negative market integration: 60 years of free movement of goods litigation 1961-2020

Michal Ovádek (UCL): Is it possible to accurately predict the authorship of judicial decisions from text?

Konstantinos Alexandris Polomarkakis (University of Exeter): Unseen contributors to legal integration and how to study them

Danai Petropoulou Ionescu (University of Maastricht): Following the trail: using investigative methods in the Study of EU law

13h15 – 14h Lunch break

14h – 15h30 Understanding the EU's integration processes

Dagmar Schiek (University College Cork): Integration through rights: sociological approaches to law

Massimo Fichera (University of Turku): Understanding EU Law from the perspective of Constitutional Theory

Jacob Vandebeten (LSE): Maastricht and the limits of integration through law: bits and pieces of a legal ideology

Giulio Kowalski (City, University of London): The role of business model differentiation in the enforcement of the Digital Markets Act: A methodological perspective

15h30 – 15h45h Coffee break

15h45 – 16h30 Understanding EU law through soft law, discourse, ideas & beliefs

Monika Brusenbauch Meislová (Masaryk University): Discursive reconstruction of Brexit and the UK in the EU Soft Law 2016-2022

Xinchuchu Gao (LSE), Xuechen Chen (New College of the Humanities): Assessing the EU's normative power through the lens of soft law diffusion: a case study of the EU's promotion of economic norms in ASEAN

Salvatore Barilla (University of Edinburgh): Ideas in international trade: the role of programmatic beliefs in the EU and China's approaches to the WTO DSM

16h30 – 16h45 Closing and future plans

16h45 – 18h Wine reception

Attendance is free of charge and open to all. Participants wishing to attend remotely should register here: <https://www.city.ac.uk/news-and-events/events/2022/november/understanding-legal-integration-disintegration-in-search-of-new-perspectives-eufutures-research-network-launch-workshop>

Participants wishing to attend in person should register in advance by emailing eufuturesnetwork@gmail.com.

Further information can be found on our website: <https://www.strath.ac.uk/humanities/lawschool/eufutures/> and on Twitter @JMTEUFutures