

School of Humanities Research Seminar Series Spring 2019

Wednesdays 4-5 pm
Lord Hope Room 104

- 16 January Adrian Osmond
'Hamlet Alive in Seoul: Adapting Shakespeare for the Korean Musical Theatre Audience'
- 23 January Isabel Davies (Birkbeck)
'Medieval Encounters with the Modern Un-Reproductive Body'
- 30 January Modern Languages LATE Lunch TBC.
- 6 February Eleanor Bell (University of Strathclyde)
'The Quest for Truth in Fiction: the Scottish Literary Response to Lockerbie'
- 13 February Cristina Gonzalez-Longo (University of Strathclyde)
'Mr James Smith and the 'Oblique' Architecture in Scotland at the End of the Seventeenth Century'
- 20 February Callum Brown (University of Glasgow)
'Humanists and the medical revolution of Britain's Liberal hour, 1960-1973'
- 27 February Ingeborg Birnie (University of Strathclyde, Modern Languages LATE Lunch)
'Gaelic Language in Education and Community - Challenges and Opportunities'
- 6 March Patricia Barton (University of Strathclyde)
'The Outsider and the Club: Ernest Hankin, the Indian Medical Service and the Evolution of Scientific Research in Colonial South Asia'
- 13 March David Goldie (University of Strathclyde)
'Romance or Reportage? Scottish Popular Fiction of the First World War'
- 20 March Asa Jansson (Durham University)
'Interrogating the Affect/Schizo Dichotomy in Psychiatry'

All are welcome! Refreshments provided.
For further information, please contact e.richardson@strath.ac.uk