

Privacy Notice – English Language Pre-Sessional Tutors

Privacy Notice
The English Language Teaching (ELT) is part of the Recruitment and International Office within the Marketing & Development Services Directorate at the University of Strathclyde. The way the University deals with the personal data of job applicants can be found in the University's Privacy Notice for Job Applicants and Potential Job Applicants. For successful applicants we will process your personal data in line with the Privacy Notice for Staff. This notice only sets out any ways in which recruitment for ELT staff differs from our standard processes or to provide you with additional helpful information.
Who we are
The University of Strathclyde is the organisation responsible for your personal data in terms of data protection legislation (the data controller). If you have any questions regarding the handling of your personal data, or your rights, please contact the University's Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@strath.ac.uk.
Why we require this information and our lawful basis
Please see either the Privacy Notice for Applicants or the Privacy Notice for Staff on our website.
How long your information is retained
Employment records are held in accordance with the Staff Retention Schedule. ELT will save a summary record of the application/appointment process for administrative and accreditation purposes. This will include the names of applicants, interviews attended and offers etc. This will be held for a rolling period of 5 years.
Your rights
You can find out about your rights via our central privacy notices for staff or applicants.
