

Disability and Wellbeing Service - Privacy Notice

Please see the central Data Protection Privacy Notice for Registered Students for further information on how your personal data is processed and used. In addition, please note the Disability and Wellbeing Service processes your personal data in order to assess your needs, to identify support required and to put this support in place, including the following, where applicable:

- referral information, including our 'tell us about your needs' questionnaire
- collecting evidence
- recommended adjustments for teaching and assessment
- assessment of needs
- referral to other services
- Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA) application

If you require external services, for example, taxis or interpreter services, we will be required to provide limited personal data to the third party to set up the service.

The Disability and Wellbeing Service will retain your record for a period of 6 years after you complete your studies or leave the university, in line with your central student record, after which your record will be confidentially destroyed.

You have a number of rights in relation to how your personal data is used. You have the right to ask us to correct inaccurate information, to ask for a copy of your information and to request the restriction of your processing. To find out more see the central Privacy Notice for Registered Students. To exercise any of these rights please contact dataprotection@strath.ac.uk
